

CITY HALL RESTORATION COMMISSION
SUMMARY OF MEETING HELD ON MONDAY JUNE 14TH 2010

Location: Third Floor Conference Room, City Hall.

Present: J.J. Bell, Jan Bell, Steve Pardee, Maggie Rosa, Suzanne Silveira

Meeting opened at 10:00 a.m.

Minutes of May 24th meeting

Accepted as is.

Clock/Bell Project Update

Bell work has been completed as per contract.

The old cradle needs to be scraped and painted – J.J. has asked David Campbell for a cost estimate.

David is expecting the clock works to be delivered this week with the steeple jack working during the week of June 21st.

Need to contact Mike Hale about the programming of the bell.

Fundraising

- Tours of City Hall and bell ringing on Saturday May 29 resulted in us raising $380
- The Letter of Intent sent to the Community Preservation Committee received approval.
- An insert for the bell time slot fundraiser will be generated based upon J.J. 's suggestions.
- The MPPF Round 16 awards should be announced after June 9th no news.

Action Item: Maggie to send proposed bell ringing fundraiser idea to the Mayor so that she may take appropriate action with the City Council

- Horribles Parade – Jan ascertained that Dale Pope is willing to loan his truck; Steve Pardee has been trying to contact David Brooks (Art Haven).

Action Items: Maggie and Steve Pardee to go over to Art Haven following the meeting.

- Open House of City Hall during Schooner Festival Sunday (Labor Day weekend). Decided not to proceed with this idea. City Hall will be participating in the Sails and Trails weekend.
- Beauport Dialogs/Beauport Anthology/ Dinner with Gloucester Characters/ A Living History event emerged as a potential fundraiser Jan spoke with Jay DiPrima and it's a possibility for Friday September 24.

Action Item: Maggie to contact Jay DiPrima (Middle School Performing Arts teacher) about the Beauport

Maintenance

Suzanne learned from Barry Pett that the use of prisoners to work on maintenance issues is possible.

Action Item: Maggie to contact the Mayor about this.

National Historic Non-Contiguous Landmark District

Father Alves will meet with J.J. and Mary after St Peter's Fiesta (Blessing of the Fleet)

Meeting closed at 11:30 a.m. Next Meeting; June 21st at 10:00 a.m.
