

City of Gloucester Community Preservation Act

APPLICATION AND PROJECT REVIEW INFORMATION

APPLICATION AND REVIEW SCHEDULE

The mission of the Community Preservation Committee (CPC) is to study the needs of the City of Gloucester in cooperation with various city boards, departments, organizations and citizens and to solicit and evaluate proposals for the use of Community Preservation Act funds for the maximum benefit to the City of Gloucester. The CPC will recommend to the City Council those projects which it deems will best achieve the purpose of the Community Preservation Act legislation in the areas of open space, historic preservation, affordable housing, and recreation.

The CPC supports the spirit and intent of state procurement and equal opportunity laws. All applicants will be evaluated in the same manner in accordance with the goals of the Community Preservation Act.

CPA monies are public funds raised from dedicated Gloucester tax revenues and from State subsidies. Projects financed with CPA funds must comply with all applicable State and municipal requirements. Funds are administered and disbursed by the City of Gloucester.

Community Preservation Committee (CPC) recommendations are reviewed by the Mayor and approved by the City Council. The City Council approval process takes a minimum of two meetings of the Council. This time frame cannot be accurately predicted; therefore the project award date above is only the committee's best estimate and subject to change.

The CPC may, under highly extraordinary circumstances, vote to accept applications that, because of market opportunities or other deadlines, require consideration outside of the normal funding cycles. Potential applicants who believe that their circumstances call for such unusual action may contact the CPC Co-Chairs to discuss the possible submission of an off-cycle submission.

APPLICATION AND REVIEW PROCESS

The following provides suggestions regarding the proposed project, describes the CPC's procedures for reviewing and recommending proposals, and outlines the City's procedures for final approval and funding.

This section also details the precise information that the CPC needs in order to evaluate projects fully and to set priorities among them. Applicants who submit a late or incomplete application should expect the CPC to return the application for completion and resubmission at a future funding round.

Suggested questions to ask and answer before you begin the application process

1. What is the project? What will it include? What will not be included? What is the scope?
2. Is this a planning project or an implementation project? For more information, see below. (It is rare that the Committee will fund a project that includes both planning and implementation Phases.)
3. Does the project enhance the mission of the organization or individual?
4. Who is the beneficiary for this project? Will the beneficiary value the project? Will the beneficiary support it financially? What information or data do you have about the beneficiary that demonstrates interest in this project?
5. What are the funding sources that will support the project? What are the requirements and deadlines for other sources? (It is rare that the Committee will award all of the funds needed for a project). A competitive application will include and ideally secure other funds for the project in advance of submitting an application to CPC.
6. What is the timeline? How will this project impact other plans and programs? Does an individual, an entity or its representative, have experience in planning and implementing similar projects?
7. How will completing this project impact the beneficiary, public or community? Will it make a difference?
8. Does it meet the eligibility requirements for a Community Preservation Act grant? (See Appendix III)

Information about Planning and Implementation Projects

Planning projects generally include budget requests for a consultant who will provide the expertise needed to determine the scope and content of the project, the project budget and the timeline. The deliverables or products of a planning project are generally reports, cost estimates and a timeline for the implementation phase of the project.

Example of a Historic Preservation Planning Project: Water is leaking into The Henry Logan Historic Home, presumably from the roof. The applicant believes it is time to replace the roof. A preservation architect, knowledgeable about preservation standards, should be called upon to determine exactly what is causing the leaks and to make recommendations for roof repair or replacement. The architect will review any previous roof repairs or replacements and any other pertinent studies like a Historic Structures Report or a Conservation Assessment. After reviewing these documents and determining the problem, the architect will prepare a study for the applicant. This study may include recommendations for a specific contractor and will include an estimated budget and timeline. Once the study is completed, the applicant should obtain estimates from two (2) or more contractors, and include both in the submitted application, along with the architect's study.

Example of a Historic Preservation Implementation Project: According to the architect's study, The Henry Logan Historic Home does not need a new roof at this time, but does require several minor roof repairs and major plumbing repairs to the top floor bathroom. Using the study, the applicant will decide on appropriate contractors and obtain current estimates, revise the budget and timeline as needed and include the study, estimates, budget and timeline in the submitted application for implementation.

Example of an Open Space Planning Project: The Back Woods Conservation Trust wishes to acquire a 37-acre parcel of land located in West Gloucester for conservation purposes and proposes public use for passive recreation. Various maps indicate that there may be a series of gas lines dating from the late 19th century crisscrossing the property, while other maps portray major discrepancies of boundary lines. Neighbors believe that the property was used for dumping noxious chemicals and other environmentally hazardous materials during the late 20th century. Before purchasing the property and attaching a conservation restriction to it, the Back Woods Land Trust requests funding to hire an environmental engineer, a land surveyor, and a title lawyer to investigate these issues prior to purchase. These consultants would prepare reports and make recommendations about the feasibility of purchasing this parcel.

Example of an Open Space Implementation Project: The Residents of Clam Cove Association wanted to repair the seawall and beautify the area of the Clam Cove public landing. To that end, they engaged a landscape architect to survey the area and determine what might be feasible to do. Her report included specifications for fixing the seawall and for rerouting water that occasionally spills over the seawall. The report also includes recommendations for gardens, flowers, sculpture and benches that would improve the look of the area. The Residents of Clam Cove Association are requesting funding from the Community Preservation Committee to support 50% of this work. Additional funding will be made available through private donations.

Step 1- Determine Project Eligibility

Due to the complexity of the CPA, the CPC requires all project applicants to begin the application process by submitting a Project Eligibility Determination Form. You will not be able to submit the full application until the Project Eligibility Determination Form has been submitted and approved.

Applicants should refer to the Community Preservation Fund Allowable Spending Purpose when filling out the Project Eligibility Determination Form. This information is available from the Department of Revenue and contains the most up-to-date information on both the definitions of the four CPA program areas (Open Space, Historical Preservation, Community Housing, and Recreation), and the allowed uses of CPA funds in the four areas.

Project Eligibility Determination Forms must be submitted at least 45 days in advance of the application deadline. The CPC will review Project Eligibility Determination Forms and notify applicants, as soon as possible, whether or not their project is eligible for CPA funds.

Applicants with questions may contact Jaimie Corliss, Grants Administrator, Community Development Department, at 3 Pond Road, Gloucester or call 978 325 5239. Information is also available on the City of Gloucester website at www.gloucester-ma.gov.

If the applicant is a private individual or organization and the project involves working on City owned property, you will need the relevant City department to sign the application as a co-applicant. You will also need a solid maintenance plan, including the identification of funding sources for maintenance. You must contact Mark Cole, Assistant DPW Director, to discuss project feasibility and obtain DPW's recommendation, approval, and signature on application. You may contact Mark at 978-325-5600 or mcole@gloucester-ma.gov. If approval is not granted, then you cannot apply.

Step 2 - Submit Completed Application

Please review both the Requirements for Submission and Application Instructions before beginning an application. Once submitted, an application may not be amended without a vote of the Committee. All applications will be submitted using the Neighborly grant portal. Paper applications will no longer be accepted.

Step 3 - Community Preservation Committee Review and Public Comment

1. Application Review: The CPC will review submitted applications on the basis of the General Evaluation Criteria and the Category Specific Evaluation Criteria for funding included in the Community Preservation Plan. All applicants should review the General Evaluation and Category Specific Criteria.

The CPC may request additional or more detailed information and further clarifications to the submitted proposals. The CPC may request a legal opinion to help it assess CPA project eligibility and to provide answers to any other questions that the Committee may have.

2. Project Review Meetings: The CPC may ask applicants or their representatives to meet with the CPC to discuss questions that members might have regarding their applications.

3. Public Comment Session: Although members of the public may attend and speak at all meetings of the committee, the date of a formal Public Comment Session will be specified during each funding round. Applicants are encouraged to invite their supporters to attend this session.

4. Notification: The CPC will notify applicants of its decisions concerning recommendations.

5. Committee Recommendations:

- a. The CPC will make its final recommendations for funding to the Mayor for submission to the City Council.
- b. The CPC reserves the right to attach conditions and to require additional agreements, such as preservation restrictions (see attached sample), or a Conservation Restriction (CR) as part of a funding recommendation. If a preservation restriction or a CR are required, it is the responsibility of the organization to record and pay for such recording.
- c. The CPC may recommend a project as proposed by the applicant, or may recommend modifications of the project, or it may recommend partial funding or funding for only a portion or phase of the proposed project. The CPC's recommendations may include detailed project scopes, conditions, and other specifications, as the CPC deems appropriate to ensure CPA compliance and project performance.
- d. If the applicant is a private individual or organization proposing a project that involves working on City owned property, the CPA Committee will also include in its recommendation to the Mayor that the project must be accepted by the City Council to approve the acceptance of goods and services on city land for the proposed project. This will involve being referred by the City Council to their Planning and Development Committee. If the City Council does not approve the project work on City owned property, then the project cannot be awarded funds.
- e. If the project on City owned land includes construction, then prevailing wages will be required. You may contact Donna Compton, Purchasing Agent, at 978-281-9710 or dcompton@gloucester-ma.gov for information on this requirement.

- f. Applications from City Boards or Commissions will require a letter from the chair indicating the board/committee as a whole has discussed and approves the application as submitted.

Step 4 - Mayoral Recommendation and City Council Vote

The Mayor will send the CPC's recommendations to the City Council. City Council has the final authority to award funds from Gloucester's Community Preservation Act Fund. The City Council may take the following actions: approve with a lower level of funding or reject recommendations. Members of the public may speak in favor or against specific recommendations at the public hearings, in accordance with City Council rules of order.

Step 5 - Award Letter

The CPC will issue award letters for projects approved by City Council with information on the funding amount, funding conditions, project modification as voted by City Council (if any), Community Preservation staff contact information, and guidelines for project execution. Projects receiving CPA funding will be required to credit this source of funding in promotional materials and, whenever appropriate, at the project location. Signs indicating CPA support will be made available through the CPC.

Step 6 - Disbursement and Monitoring of Funds

For questions about procurements and other financial requirements and procedures applicants should contact the Purchasing Agent, Donna Compton, at 978- 281-9710.

Project oversight, monitoring, and financial control are the responsibility of the CPC or its designee. Questions in these areas should be directed to Jaimie Corliss, Grants Manager via email at jcorliss@gloucester-ma.gov or by calling 978-325 5239.

The CPC will require quarterly project status updates from CPA Fund recipients. The purpose of such updates is to track the progress of funded projects and help identify issues that may be addressed in order to assist future applicants.

THE COMMUNITY PRESERVATION COMMITTEE

Members of the Committee are available to guide you with further information regarding the Community Preservation Act, the Community Preservation Plan priorities, and the funding process. Visit <https://gloucester-ma.gov/103/Community-Preservation-Committee> for additional information and current Committee members. Characteristics which contribute to the architectural, archaeological and historical integrity of the Premises include, but are not limited to, the artifacts, features, materials, appearance, and workmanship of the Premises, including those characteristics which originally qualified the Premises.

TERMS

The terms of the Agreement are as follows:

1. Maintenance of Premises: The Grantor agrees to assume the total cost of continued maintenance, repair and administration of the Premises so as to preserve the characteristics which contribute to the architectural, archaeological and historical integrity of the Premises in a manner satisfactory to the City according to the Secretary of the Interior's "Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties with Guidelines for Preserving, Rehabilitating, Restoring, and Reconstructing Historic Buildings" (36 CFR 67 and 68), as these may be amended from time to time. 3. Alterations: The Grantor agrees that no alteration shall be made to the Premises unless (a) it is clearly of a minor nature and not affecting the characteristics which contribute to the architectural, archaeological or historical integrity of the Premises, or (b) the City, after reviewing the plans and specifications, determines that the work will not impair such characteristics, or (c) required by casualty or other emergency promptly reported to the City. Ordinary maintenance and repair of the Premises may be made without the written permission of the City. For purposes of this section, interpretation of what constitutes alterations of a minor nature and ordinary maintenance and repair is governed by the Restriction Guidelines which are attached to this Agreement and hereby incorporated by reference (see Exhibit B).

However, should the Committee determine that additional time is necessary in order to make its decision it shall notify the Grantor. The Committee's approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and shall be granted upon a reasonable showing that the proposed activity shall not materially impair the Purpose of this Agreement. Failure of the Committee to make a decision within sixty (60) days from the date on which the Committee reviewed the request or notice of a time extension is received by the Grantor shall be deemed to constitute approval of the request as submitted, so long as the request sets forth the provisions of this section relating to deemed approval after the passage of time.
5. Assignment: The City may assign this Agreement to another governmental body or to any charitable corporation or trust among the purposes of which is the maintenance and preservation of historic properties only in the event that the City should cease to function in its present capacity.

Restriction Guidelines

The purpose of the Restriction Guidelines is to clarify Paragraph three (3) of the Terms of the Preservation Restriction Agreement that deals with alterations to the Historic Property. Under this section permission from the City of Gloucester through the Gloucester Historical Commission (GHC) ("Grantee") is required for any major alterations. Alterations of a minor nature that are part of ordinary maintenance and repair do not require Gloucester Historical Commission's review.

In an effort to explain what constitutes a minor alteration and what constitutes a major change, (that must be reviewed by the Gloucester Historical Commission), the following list has been developed. By no means is this list comprehensive: it is only a sample of some of the more common alterations, which may be contemplated by building owners.

PAINT

Minor - Exterior hand scraping and repainting clapboards or non-decorative and non-significant surfaces as part of periodic maintenance.

Major - Painting or fully stripping decorative surfaces or distinctive stylistic features including ornamental woodwork, stone decorative or significant original siding.

WINDOWS AND DOORS

Minor - Regular maintenance including caulking, painting and necessary re-glazing. Repair or in-kind replacement of existing individual decayed window parts.

Major - Wholesale replacement of units; change in fenestration or materials; alteration of profile or setback of windows.

EXTERIOR

Minor - Spot repair of existing cladding and roofing including in-kind replacement of clapboards, shingles, slates, etc.

Major - large-scale repair or replacement of cladding or roofing. Change involving inappropriate removal or addition of materials or building elements (i.e. removal of chimneys or cornice detailing; installation of architectural detail which does not have a historical basis); altering or demolishing building additions; spot re-pointing of masonry. Structural stabilization of the property is also considered a major alteration.

LANDSCAPING/OUTBUILDINGS

Minor - Routine maintenance of outbuildings and landscape including lawn mowing, pruning, planting, painting, and repair.

Major - Moving or subdividing buildings or property; altering of property; altering or removing significant landscape features such as gardens, vistas, walks, plantings; ground disturbance affecting archaeological resources.

Changes classified as major alterations are not necessarily unacceptable. Under the Preservation Restriction Agreement, such changes must be reviewed by the Gloucester Historical Commission to assess their impact on the historic integrity of the Premises.

It is the responsibility of the property owner to notify the Gloucester Historical Commission in writing when any major alterations are contemplated. Substantial alterations may necessitate review or plans and specifications.

The intent of the Preservation Restriction Agreement is to enable the Gloucester Historical Commission to review proposed alterations and assess their impact on the integrity of the structure, not to preclude future change. The Gloucester Historical Commission will attempt to work with property owners to develop mutually satisfactory solutions, which are in the best interests of the property.
